

February 28, 1991 LB 237, 285

would mean that there would be two aspects in this amendment of the three that I previously declared. One, the striking of "unsecured" from senior obligations, a technical amendment, and, two, the provisions of LB 285, which is to permit a company to make a loan to an officer or do transactions of that kind with the consent of the department. What will not be in this amendment, then, is the question of the relationship of this bill to foreign and alien companies. That will be a stand-alone amendment, which Senator Warner and I will be able to discuss, following the adoption of this part of the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Landis. Is there anyone else who wishes to speak to this part of the amendment? Seeing none, Senator Landis, do you wish to close?

SENATOR LANDIS: I will waive closing.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Landis waives closing. We will now proceed to vote on all of the amendment except for Sections 2 and 3, if I understand that correctly.

SENATOR LANDIS: Yes.

SPEAKER BAACK: Okay, all those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, it looks as if we are depleted in number. We look like the Iraqi Army at this point. I would suggest a call of the house to bring in some of our colleagues, and then we can go on to the issue of subsection (3).

SPEAKER BAACK: Are you suggesting some of them may have surrendered or...? We have a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members please return to the Chamber, take your seats and record your presence, please. The house is under call.

PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

PPRESIDENT MOUL: We will accept call in votes.
